

Junior Development Code of Conduct

Tennis is a sport of etiquette. Therefore, WRC requires all Junior Development players to follow a code of conduct.

- Bullying or harassment of other players will not be tolerated.
- Love your racquet! Hold your racquet close to you when not playing.
- Listen and follow your instructor's directions.
- Help pick up tennis balls in a timely manner.
- Ask the coach for permission to leave the court.
- Be respectful of other players and the coaches.

If your behavior endangers the safety of others or you do not follow the code of conduct, you will be asked to leave.

CANCELLATION POLICY

There are NO personal makeups. A credit/refund will not be given for a missed class. If WRC cancels a class, a credit/refund will be issued.

In the case of illness or injury, a doctor's note is required to receive a refund/credit for missed classes.

One class fee will be held as a late unregistration fee for leaving the session after payment has been submitted.

If you are asked to leave the program, a refund will not be issued.
